

Friday evening train to leave Nashville at 10:30 p.m.
Hour later departure allows residents, visitors to enjoy downtown longer

Effective July 2, 2010, the Music City Star Friday evening train will depart from Nashville an hour later at 10:30 p.m. This change in departure provides an opportunity for customers to enjoy downtown Nashville a little longer.

“We want to be able to give passengers more time to enjoy activities downtown on Friday nights, and the timing is perfect to start this week since the Fourth of July activities begin on Friday night,” RTA CEO Paul J. Ballard said.

The Music City Star has offered convenient service into downtown on Friday evenings for people who want to enjoy fine dining, music, and the excitement of Music City.

For those wanting to spend even more time in downtown Nashville, the Music City Star has an earlier weekday train that departs Mt. Juliet Station at 5 p.m., stops at the Hermitage and Donelson stations, and arrives downtown at 5:35 p.m. Two other trains depart Lebanon Station at 3:20 p.m. and 3:55 p.m. and arrive downtown at 4:10 p.m. and 4:50 p.m., respectively.

The Friday evening train now leaves Lebanon Station 10 minutes earlier at 6:40 p.m., makes stops at Martha, Mt. Juliet, Hermitage and Donelson, and arrives at Nashville’s Riverfront Station 10 minutes earlier at 7:30 p.m. The return train to Lebanon now leaves Riverfront Station at 10:30 p.m., makes stops at the other stations along the way, and arrives back in Lebanon at 11:20 p.m.

Once downtown, customers can board one of the new blue and green MTA Music City Circuit buses to reach their final destination. This new, free service began on March 29 and is designed to help tourists, visitors, workers and residents reach sports and entertainment venues, downtown hotels, residences, and offices more quickly and easily.

The Music City Circuit operates Monday through Saturday from early morning until late evening. Buses travel in two different downtown routes: one running north/south to the Bicentennial Mall (until 6 p.m.) and one running east/west into the Gulch (until midnight), a LEED certified community. It connects many key downtown destinations including the Farmers' Market, the Schermerhorn Symphony Center, the Gulch's restaurants and bars to Riverfront Station.
